Final Project - Grading Rubric
Student Name
CRITERIA
	Description	Comments	Points
Sketches	The student submitted sketches for the character			/	4
Character biography	The student submitted a clear bio for the character			/	4
Character turnaround	The student created a character turnaround, including front, side, and back views.			/	5
Walk cycle	The student created a walk cycle that loops seamlessly, is physically sound, and conveys the character' personality/mood.			/	20
Follow through & overlapping action	The student applied the follow through and overlapping action to the character's walk cycle			/	6
Clean up/color	The line of the character are clean and the student used color .			/	6
Storyboard	The student submitted a storyboard clearly outlining the elements in the frame, the action of the character, camera movements, and audio.			/	10
Background	The student created and panned a background behind their character.			/	5
Camera movement	The student used After Effects' Camera tool to create different shot types/camera moves.			/	5
Effects	The student used an After Effects effect to enhance their animation.			/	5
Title & credits	The student created a title and credits sequence with After Effects' text animation properties			/	5
Sound	The student created a sound track that used sound effects and/or music is synced with the animation and enhances the piece.			/	5
File format	The student submitted all the appropriate files/links (please refer to the class website).			/	5
Storytelling	The project effectively communicated a story about the character.				5
General idea/execution	The project has a clear, distinctive concept and is well executed.			/	10
		Total	0		100
Deduction: Presentation	The student did not present his work in front of the class (-2 points)			/
		Total	0	/	100