

We're replacing track. CONSTANTLY

Replacing or renewing tracks, ties, and bridges is something we do every day so trains can travel at optimal speeds. In the last year along, miles and miles of track and several bridges have been replaced or renewed. That means safer, faster, more reliable trips, now and in the future.