

Final Draft of Essay 3.
Due by December 4th at 11:59 p.m.

For Essay 3, you have two options. You can EITHER write a 500 word thesis-driven essay including one in text citation from each of the Adichie and Smith readings (at least two total citations) you can create a response to one of the questions using a format of your choice. This could be an artwork, a comic strip, a short video, a poem, or any other form that you can submit by a link here on Blackboard or submit to me by email.

OR

If you choose the alternative option, please write a paragraph explaining your inspiration and process. Please include one in text citation from each of the Adichie and Smith readings using correct MLA format.

The questions are:

1. Some people believe that a singular version of a people or nation is an illusion. Where do you stand on this issue?
2. Do you think it is more of a gift or a burden to love with multiple voices or stories? Take a position and support it.
3. What effect does reducing a person to a single story or voice have on them?
