

The things that my community needs to prove is the sexual harassment against women because I have been harassed by men a lot of times the need to prove people should protect women by showing them to protect themselves. I was followed by my building and screamed at men and nobody helped, not even the male neighbors the plan was to give women help to be safe by having women walk together