FLATBUSH, BROOKLYN

Lina Matute Vargas

Center of Brooklyn

- Flatbush Ave runs right through the middle of Brooklyn.

- It starts from the very beginning of Downtown Brooklyn to the very tip at Ave U, reaching the Belt Parkway.
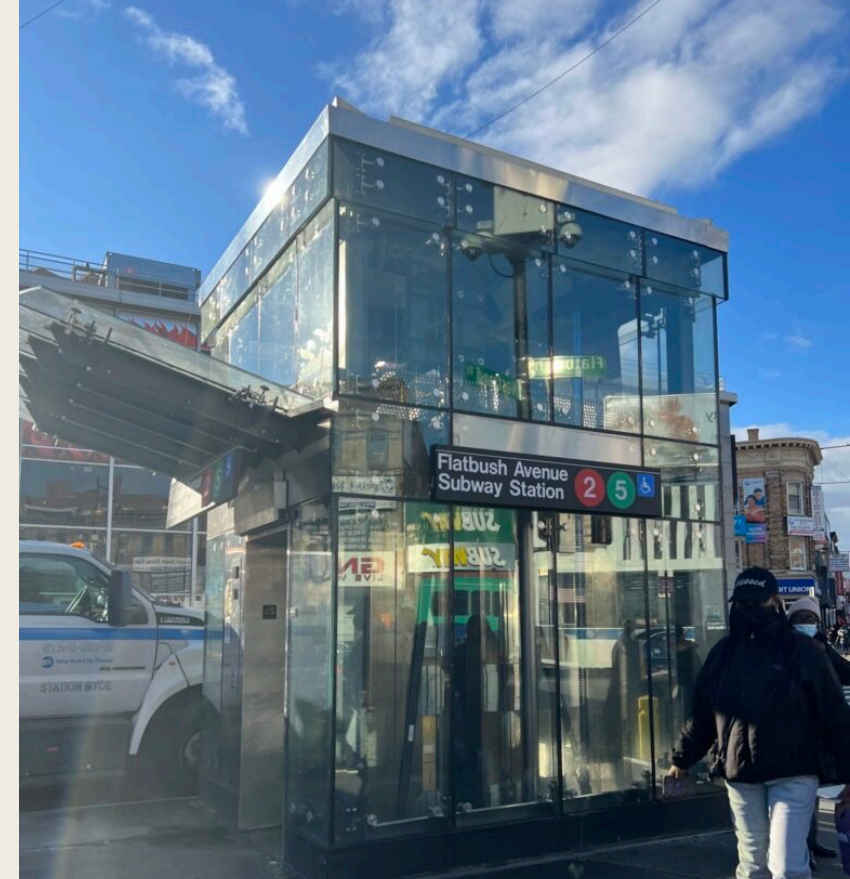

Flatbush Junction

- Flatbush area consist of Flatbush Ave to Coney Island along Ave I up until Flatbush Ave to Coney along side Parkside Ave prior to reaching Prospect Park.

- The area that is my neighborhood and that I will be focusing on is Flatbush Junction or Midwood area.

- This area is called the 'Junction' because it is an intersection where Flatbush Ave and Nostrand Ave meet.

>Flatbush is very centric and always filled with people at all times of the day being that there are some many resources.

>2 & 5 train, B103, B41, B44, B44- SBS, and the Q35. In the area you will find transfers to the B9, B8 and the B82 as well.

> It also has many fast food restauranters, a gym, local supermarkets, and a Target (2008).

- Home to 68,576 people.

- Of these people, Black/African American and Hispanic Latinos are the bigger population making up 74% of the population in 2020.

- Over 10 years the white non-Hispanic population has grown 78.9%.
