

Questions for Reflections Paper Interview

Identify a member of your family/cultural community who has experience caring for and raising babies – preferably someone who cared for you, or babies, when you were an infant. Ask the following questions, which will help with your Reflections Paper.

1. Who took care of babies when their parents worked? Why?
2. How did you feed a baby?
 - a. How did you know it was time for them to eat?
 - b. How did you prepare the baby to eat?
 - c. Where did the baby eat?
 - d. What food did you give the baby?
 - e. What supplies or materials did you use to feed a baby?
 - f. How did you know the baby was finished eating?
3. How did you put a baby to nap?
 - a. How did you know it was time for them to nap?
 - b. How did you prepare the baby to nap?
 - c. Where did the baby nap?
 - d. What did you do while the baby was falling asleep?
 - e. How did you know they were finished napping?
4. How do you believe babies learn? How do you support babies learning?
5. What are some activities you do with the baby?
6. Other questions would you like to know