Sub-Theme 5:
Language I speak

I am interested in this theme because...

Children have different background and have knowledge to their own traditions at a young age. Children should be able to express their culture to people. Culture forms a person to be who they are. Learning new cultures can expose them to different opinions. It's important for children to learn that everyone has a culture that makes them unique.

Through this theme students will discover...

The Different cultures that classmates have. Discover the similarities and differences in each culture. How culture defines them or their family.

The sub-themes will support student learning this big-picture topic by...

Learning how their culture was form and where they come from. Students will learn how the language they speak affects them. The sub themes will also help them realize that music plays a huge role in culture. “My culture” slowly becomes “Our culture” to the classroom because students should all feel welcomed.
