Curriculum Theme: Our Five Senses - Smell

Book title: Llama Llama, Yum Yum Yum

Author: Anna Dewdney

Summarize your book. What is the story about?

A scratch and sniff book of Llama and her mama cooking and eating different treats in the kitchen.

Mirrors and Windows: How might this book support children in your class. Is it a mirror, window, a sliding door, or a combination? Explain.

This book supports the children smelling skills and learning about different types of treats. It is a mirror book, the children have either ate the treat before or they haven't and they get introduced to the scent of that treat.

Describe the illustrations. How do the illustrations add to the story?

It shows how Llama comes across each treat and it helps indicate where you'll be able to scratch and sniff a treat to see how it smells.

List questions that you would ask before, during or following a read aloud or discussion of this book.

1. What treats do you think will be in the book?
2. Can you describe how each treat smells like?
3. Have you ever had those treats?

4. Are they good or bad treats?

Get creative! Briefly describe an art activity (using visual arts, movement, music, or dramatic play) that you would do with your class of 4, 5, or 6-yearolds in connection with a reading this book.

Guess The Smell: There will be different cups covered with different types of scents in them. The students will guess what they believe the scents are.
