

Name:

Weekly Review 1 – DUE TUESDAY 08/31

Bring to class, having attempted as much as possible, we will grade in class

Turn in corrected assignment to Blackboard after class

1. What is the section number of our course? _____
Should I include it in email correspondence with AI? _____
2. When are my office hours? _____ Where? _____
What is a reason you might consider coming to office hours? _____

3. What are the dates of the Question Building Exercises? _____
Take some time now to make sure you have no conflicts with class on those dates. What is something you have done to help assure you are able to participate in class that day?: _____

4. Who can you contact if you would benefit from accessibility accommodations?

5. When are weekly reviews due in general? _____
How many weekly reviews are there? _____
How many weekly reviews are you responsible for completing? _____
6. Where will you find readings for each week? _____
When do they need to be completed? _____
7. If you do not participate in the question building exercises or the reading summaries (in class assignments) and do perfectly on everything else what is the highest grade you can get? _____
Why is that grade unlikely? _____
8. What might be challenging to you about “make space, take space”? _____

9. What is one benefit of being willing to be wrong? Your example can be from the syllabus or your own experience. _____

10. What happens if you miss a reading summary? _____

Ungraded/Optional

11. Is there something you would like to add to our community agreement that is not already included? _____
