

If you are not being given the 'Start Trial' option. try logging in at <https://www.cengage.com/dashboard/#/start-trial> to apply the free access to their accounts.

You will need to click the 'Start Trial' option on the left side of their Dashboards or login through the link above if they do not see the 'Start Trial' option.

If you are still being prompted to purchase the ebook or courseware when trying to access it, the issue will need to be reported to a tech support agent. You can copy these instructions in the chat transcript to use to further troubleshoot any issues. Tech support might reach out via email if necessary.

The screenshot shows the Cengage Unlimited dashboard interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Cengage Unlimited logo and a link to "Register another course". Below this is a "My Home" section with several cards. The first card is for "eBook for Larson's Precalculus" with a "START TRIAL" button highlighted by a red arrow. The second card is for "MAT 206 - Spring 2020 1201" with an "Access Expired" status. To the right of these cards are two promotional banners: one for "Find and add your courses" and another for "Want a print version of your textbook?". The left sidebar contains a "MAIN MENU" with options like "My Home", "Courses", "Browse Catalog", "Partner Offers", "Print Options", "College Success Tips", "Career Success Tips", "Start your FREE trial of CENGAGE UNLIMITED" (with the "START TRIAL" button), "Help", and "Give Feedback".
