COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is a course that builds upon the skills introduced in English 101. In this course, literature is the field for the development of critical reading, critical thinking, independent research, and writing skills. Students are introduced to literary criticism and acquire basic knowledge necessary for the analysis of texts (including literary terms and some literary theory); they gain proficiency in library and internet research; and they hone their skills as readers and writers.

Assignments move from close readings of literary texts in a variety of genres to analyses that introduce literary terms and broader contexts, culminating in an independent, documented, thesis-driven, research paper. By the conclusion of English 201, students will be prepared for the analytical and research-based writing required in upper-level courses across the curriculum; they will also be prepared for advanced courses in literature.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites: ENG 101 or 100.5

NO TEXTBOOK FOR THIS COURSE

This is a zero textbook cost course (ZTC) that uses OER (Open Educational Resources), which are accessed through the course in Blackboard.

HOW THE ONLINE CLASS WORKS

This is a synchronous online class on the *OpenLab platform. This means that students must attend a weekly Zoom every Thursday from 10:00 to 11:15. In addition, members of the class are responsible for completing 6-10 activities each week. The activities, posted on the weekly pages on OpenLab, are varied and include reading, listening, viewing, and discussing activities. Your grade will be based on essays, quizzes and your responses to the discussion boards. Each online week begins on Monday morning and ends on Sunday night.

CAMERAS IN ZOOM MEETINGS

Students are required to be on camera during weekly Zoom meetings. You are free to use artificial or blurred backgrounds. If you are uncomfortable with this policy, please change courses to one in which this request is not made.

OPENLAB AT BMCC

OpenLab is an online platform on which the College's students, faculty and staff can come together to learn, work, play and share ideas. This means that almost all our course activities will take place on the OpenLab WordPress site, rather than on Blackboard. You will only be directed back to Blackboard to submit essays and take quizzes. You can also visit your Blackboard course to check your grades in the Grade Center.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Participation in the academic activity of each course is a significant component of the learning process and plays a major role in determining overall student academic achievement. Academic activities may include, but are not limited to submitting assignments, engaging online activities and discussions, taking quizzes, and participating in group work. Each instructor has the right to establish her own class participation policy, and it is each student's responsibility to be familiar with and follow the participation policies for each course. In this course, participation is evidenced by on-camera attendance at weekly Zoom meetings and contributions to weekly written discussion boards.

If you do not engage in an academic activity at least once in the first weeks of the semester, the instructor is required to assign a grade of "WN".

INFORMATION ABOUT DISCUSSION BOARDS

Class participation via the Discussion Board comprises 10% of your overall grade. Even in an online course, lively discussions are at the heart of an interesting class. Detailed information regarding discussion boards is posted in the COURSE INFORMATION section of our OpenLab class. You must post during the current week. Discussion Boards cannot be "made up" because once the discussion is closed, there is no one in the forum with whom to have a conversation.

COMMUNICATION IN OUR ONLINE COURSE

I can be easily be reached by email at cconway@bmcc.cuny.edu, and will make every effort to respond within 24 hours. Students can meet with me via Zoom during my office hours or at a mutually convenient time if those hours are not possible.

I will be checking in frequently on the discussion boards during the week. A Questions forum will be open throughout the semester where you can post questions at any time. I will check this forum at least every 48 hours.

RESPONSE TIME FOR GRADING OF SUBMITTED WORK

Weekly discussion board grades will be posted on Tuesday or Wednesday of the following week. Essays will be evaluated within 10 days of submission and possibly sooner. No email submissions will be accepted. All written work must be submitted through the Blackboard course in order to receive a grade.

POLICY REGARDING LATE WORK

Papers must be submitted on their due date. Late papers will be penalized one full grade for every 5 days of lateness. There will be a final cut-off date after two weeks after which late essays will not receive a passing grade.

HOW WORK WILL BE GRADED

Essays will be submitted and graded through the Turnitin feature on Blackboard. Students will receive both text and voice comments on their work. Plagiarized essays will receive a permanent grade of F, and the student will be reported to the Student Life Manager for Student Conduct and Academic Integrity.

BMCC is committed to the health and well-being of all students. It is common for everyone to seek assistance at some point in their life, and there are free and confidential services on campus that can help. A full list of student services is posted on the OpenLab course site on the Help and Resources page.

ADVOCACY AND RESOURCE CENTER (ARC)

If you are having problems with finances, health insurance or anything else that might get in the way of your studies at BMCC, contact the Advocacy and Resource Center for advice and assistance at arc@bmcc.cuny.edu.

COUNSELING CENTER

www.bmcc.cuny.edu/counseling, room S343, 212-220-8140. Counselors assist students in addressing psychological and adjustment issues (i.e., depression, anxiety, and relationships) and can help with stress, time management and more. Counselors are available for walk-in visits.

OFFICE OF ACCESSIBILITY

Students who need academic accommodations in connection with a disability must initiate the request with BMCC's Office of Accessibility (OA). Students need to register with the Office of Accessibility in order to officially disclose their disability status to the College to determine eligibility for appropriate reasonable accommodations (including any prior IEPs or 504s). Please contact the OA at the start of the semester (or as soon as possible) to coordinate any accommodation request/s. Office of Accessibility. www.bmcc.cuny.edu/accessibility, Room N360 (accessible entrance: 77 Harrison Street), 212-220-8180, accessibility@bmcc.cuny.edu.

GENDER-INCLUSIVITY

BMCC community members have the right to use and be referred to according to their preferred name, title, and/or personal pronouns. Everyone also has the right to use all spaces according to their self-identification, including restrooms and locker rooms. To learn more about how to change your preferred name and affirm your gender identity at CUNY (including requesting a new ID card and/or email address), go here: <https://www.bmcc.cuny.edu/student-affairs/lgbtq/>

Anyone who has experienced harassment related to gender or sexual identification, who needs assistance, or who wishes to file a complaint, can contact the Office of Compliance and Diversity: <https://www.bmcc.cuny.edu/about-bmcc/compliance-diversity/>.

BMCC POLICY ON PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else's ideas, words, or artistic/scientific/technical work as one's own creation. A student who copies or paraphrases published or on-line material, or another person's research, without properly identifying the source(s) is committing plagiarism.

Plagiarism violates the ethical and academic standards of our college. Students will be held responsible for such violations, even when unintentional. To avoid unintended plagiarism, students should consult with their instructors about when and how to document their sources. The library also has both print and digital guides designed to help students cite sources correctly.

Plagiarism carries a range of penalties commensurate with severity of the infraction. The instructor may, for example, require the work to be redone, reduce the course grade, fail the student in the course, or refer the case to the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee (Article 15.4 of the Bylaws of the Board of Trustees). Cases referred to that committee could result in suspension or expulsion from the college.
