Original Title

“Literature is . . .” Write the complete word-for-word quote you have chosen. Explain what the quote means to you. Tell who the author of the quote is. Then discuss how the quote relates to any work of literature (story, book, poem, play) that you have read in the past. When you are finished, give your paragraph an interesting title that will make people want to read it. At the end of the paragraph, skip a few lines and sign an academic integrity pledge in which you tell in your own words why plagiarism is dishonest and pledge that you have not, and will not, engage in it. Make sure that you follow the exact formatting you see here. Use 12-point Times New Roman font. Double space. Use quotation marks where needed. Put periods and other punctuation marks inside the quotation marks; e.g. “Literature is great.”

Academic Integrity Pledge. I think plagiarism is dishonest because . . .
