

“The single story creates stereotypes”.

I myself have been in a danger of a single story until I finally opened my eyes and seen the world from different perspectives.

Inform & influence others that your perception isn't the full story and far from reality.

🌀 The eye only sees what the mind is prepared to comprehend.

Acknowledge more than one perception and become less biased.