

FITOH SHORT VIDEO

EXT. FITOH SIDEWALK - DAY

We start with an overhead shot of the city. The camera zooms in on two people walking, those two people are VALYRIE, with SAL following behind her.

SAL

Hey Val! Who do you think we'll fight today!

VALYRIE

Sal, we don't always have to fight people. There are other things to do

SAL

I know, I'm just curious. We get into fights everyday

VALYRIE

Dude, we literally spent all day yesterday hanging out at home. Not fighting

SAL

That's why we need to get into one today. We always gotta be ready!

VALYRIE

Look, tell you what. The next fight we get into I'll allow you to have the first hit

SAL

Cool!

Valyrie and Sal continue to walk down the block, Sal being all hyped up. They then reach the corner of the block, where they see a surprising yet silly sight.

EXT. FITOH SIDEWALK - CORNER - DAY

A man in knight armor is fighting someone and winning. His opponent tries to land a hit, but despite the Knight's tin armor he is able to dodge and block each blow, which leads up to the Knight knocking out his opponent in one punch. The Knight gloats over his victory in a very bold yet corny matter, using very dramatic body language as he speaks

KNIGHT

Ha ha! A scrawny novice like you stands no chance against a master of combat such as myself!

Valyrie and Sal stare at him with a dumbfounded expression, which later turns into them both laughing. This catches the Knight's attention

KNIGHT

Halt! Who dares laugh in my presence

VALYRIE

(trying to hold in laughter) Uh, don't worry about it sir-

Valyrie sentence gets cut short as Sal laughing cuts her off, which leads to her laughing more. The Knight isn't pleased with this

KNIGHT

Mockery will not be tolerated in my presence. I challenge you to a duel!

Valkyrie and Sal recover from their laughter and gain their composure. Valkyrie tries to ease the situation

VALYRIE

Look, we don't have to have a... "duel", right Sal

She notices Sal has disappeared from her side to charge at the Knight. Sal takes out his bat to swing at the Knight, but the knight jumps over Sal's horizontal swing. When the Knight lands he pushes Sal back

KNIGHT

You are a mere child. You will not beat me

SAL

Well this "child" will kick your butt!

As Sal gets ready to attack the Knight again, Valyrie steps in and tries to land a hit on the Knight, which the Knight barely dodges. Before they could continue, Sal shouts in discontent

SAL

Val! What happened to me getting the first hit!

VALYRIE

I forgot-

Valyrie gets cut off as she dodges an incoming hit from the Knight. The Knight tries to land a few hits but Valyrie dodges each of them. The Knight can't help but acknowledge her skill

KNIGHT

You are quite skilled. But skill won't be enough to beat me!

The Knight pulls out a stick from his belt, which proceeds to grow into a spear. He twirls the spear around, showing off his skill and points it towards his opponent

VALYRIE

Oh crap

Yes...prepare to feel the wrath of my capabilities!

The Knight charges at Valyrie with the spear in his hands. The Knight jabs at Vayrie but she dodges and catches the spear with her hand. Both Valyrie and the Knight struggle to keep their hold on the spear as they both try to pull it out of each other's hands

Let go! You insolent-

Knight gets cut short with a hit straight in the head from Sal's bat. The hit knocks the knight to the floor, letting go of the spear, with a dent in his helmet

SAL
Yes! First hit!

Valyrie gains her grip on the spear and throws it far away from the Knight's reach.

EXT. FITOH SIDEWALK - ACROSS THE STREET - DAY

Just when you wonder where it went, a man is shown struggling to open his bottle of soda

MAN
I can't open this bottle!

The spear lands, missing the guy but impaling the bottle.

EXT. FITOH SIDEWALK - DAY

Dazed, the Knight looks up at his foes as he tries to get up

KNIGHT
You...fight with no honor...I will not stand to lose to you

The Knight gets up and tries to land a hit on Sal, but receives a kick to the torso. The force of which knocks him against a nearby wall with another dent on his armor. The Knight is unable to get up from the blow. Valyrie faces towards Sal

So, you're happy now? We got into a fight

SAL
Yeah! I hit him so hard, the armor couldn't handle it

VALYRIE

Although, my kick also affected his armor. I don't think it was that hard
