

Do you want to be an ECI (infant-toddler) or ECP (preschool) major? Why?	I want to be a ECP, because I wanted to be a teacher that would teach preschool age kids, it's my dreams to work and be around
What qualities do you have that will help you be successful working with your chosen age group?	Some qualities I have to become a successful preschool age child are: Patience and a Sense of Humor, Creativity, Communication Skills, Flexibility. Understanding Diversity. A Bachelor's Degree in Child Development.
What skills would you like to develop that will help you be more effective working with that age group?	Some skills I would like to develop that would help me work with a preschool age group are Ability to make decisions and solve problems and ability to plan organized things.
What are your career goals?	My career goals are to be a pre-k teacher. I Want to get my associates degree at bmcc and then attend a four year school and get my bachelors. And after that I would also try my best to get my Master degree too and work while i'm going to school.
What steps will you take to achieve those career goals?	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. First get my associates and Bachelor degree2. Seconds 6 months of experience working in a school-based setting with children under the age of 6, and commit to obtain a NY State Early childhood teacher certification within three years of employment3. search for a job4. get a job5. work while going to go for my Master degree
What steps will you take at BMCC to help you reach those goals?	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. i would use all the material i got from BMCC2. and try my best to reach my goal3. and become successful4.5.

Attribute to J. Longley, Ed.D., Assistant Professor, Teacher Education Department, Borough of Manhattan Community College – CUNY