

Name: Laila Munassar

Materials List

Science Center	Math and Manipulative s Center	Literacy Center	Writing Center
costume accessories (eggs for a bird costume, crowns and shields for royalty, shopping bags, doctor kit, etc.), kitchen set with food and cooking equipment, shopping cart, scale, cash register Dolls of babies with a changing table, a stroller, and a wearable carrier (accessories diapers, baby clothes, especially winter coats, bottles, etc) Clothing and cuisine will be included to represent the various cultures in our town.	Some of the objects in this area that assist youngsters develop hand/eye coordination include puzzles, beads, tiny animals, play-dough, sea shells, and nuts.	Begin with the learner; think about what kind of literacy center you want to establish with him or her in mind. Consider the goal of your literacy center. Choose a location for the literacy center. For the center, choose a subject, topic, or focus.	Students can utilize pencils, erasers, glue, white-out, tape, scissors, staples, markers, highlighters, sticky notes, and other drafting and publishing supplies. Of course, having an electric pencil sharpener in the writing center is essential.

Library Sources of Information. Books and e-books are two different types of books. Databases of articles. Timeline of Information	Art Center Glue Sticks. Paint Sticks. Liquid Glue. Ink Pads & Stamps. Scissors. Crayons. Markers. Pencils.	Dramatic Play clothing (hats, scarves, shoes, dresses, etc.) fabric (different colors and patterns) masks and capes. boxes, purses, and luggage. writing materials. items for specific prop box themes. miscellaneous items such as a camera, sunglasses, wand	Music Center Musical Egg Shakers. Echo Microphone. Rainstick. Jingle Bell Bracelets. Hand Bells. Maracas. Xylophone. Castanets.

Block Center Unit blocks. Soft Blocks. Vehicles (bus, dump truck, fire truck) Traffic Signs. Block Play People. Cardboard Blocks. Around the Town Rug. Books about Building, Construction, and Transportation.	Listening Center iPod Shuffles instead of CD players old iPhones for interactive listening experiences	Group Meeting Area a chair for the teacher to sit on. a shelf to organize instructional materials. A large area rug. carpet squares or something to define student spaces. seating for the students (benches, chairs, etc.) an easel or whiteboard. dry erase markers.	Quiet Space soft surfaces, cuddly toys, some cushions, a cozy rug, a blanket, and a little sofa or chair.
---	--	---	---

Sensory Water beads. Water beads have long been a favorite in our house Oobleck Shaving cream Playdough Crazy Aaron's Thinking Putty	Play Dough 1 cup water. food coloring. 6 cups flour. 1 cup vegetable oil. measuring cups. mixing bowl. wooden spoon.	Theme Center Papers Pen Pencil Colors Stickers Glue sticks	Other: _ Teacher talk Table Two chairs for a student and the teacher Snacks Love stickers after any talk

