

LIN 100 BO5W

Quiz 3 Spring Express B, 2024

Instructions: Answer each of the questions below in 1-3 sentences.

1. What is linguistic profiling?
2. What research did John Baugh do and why?
3. What is intersectionality and how can it be applied to issues in language and identity?
4. What is AAVE?
5. What did Tannen's research tell us about children and language and gender?
6. What are some potential problems with some of the earlier work in language and gender?
7. What is an example of sexist language?
8. In what ways has the academy addressed issues of sexist language?
9. In what ways has the emergence of other gender identities (think non-binary, etc.) upended the way we look at language and gender?
10. What is the most interesting thing that you learned in this unit?