

A National K9 Veterans Day

The American Humane Pays Tribute to the Fluffy Friends on the Front Lines

Washington, DC: American Humane is a Non-Profit organization whose objective is ensuring the safety, welfare, and well-being of animals. They not only focus on rescuing animals but making sure animals happy and healthy throughout their lifetime. The American Humane overlooks and sets a high standard for the care of farm animals, working animals, and military animals.

While Veterans Day is celebrated annually on November 11, they are focused on honoring the military veterans of the United States Armed Forces. Now, a special day is celebrated for the pups who serve too. On last week's Sunday, March 13, The American Humane celebrated National K9 Veterans Day.

The programs The American Humane has in place for K9's:

- Emergency Veterinary Grants for Military Dogs
- Working with Congress to require military dogs be brought back to the U.S. upon retirement instead of being abandoned overseas, with the right for their handler and family to adopt them
- K-9 Courage Program, a rescue program that rescues unwanted dogs in need of homes and trains them to become lifesaving service animals for military veterans struggling with PTSD and TBI
- Military Dog Reunification
- The American Humane Lois Pope K-9 Medal of Courage Awards

About American Humane: American Humane is a Non-Profit Organization based in Washington, DC. Founded in 1877, American Humane focuses on the well-being of animals and has many programs in place that focus on rescue, conservation, and treating animals with respect.

###