

"It's ironic that no matter where I go, I meet people from Brooklyn. I'm proud of that heritage. Its where I'm from, who I'am"

-Howard Schultz

Sandy is a 17 year old who uses her voice for the needs of her community. Embracing her latin roots and traditions. A young powerful women who fights for the justice many seek and deserve. Continuing to live through important lessons she has learned. Spreading her knowledge to those around her. With the skills learned from Graphic Design she will be able to create powerful visual messages for people, helping to change our society for the good.

SUNSET PARK BROOKLYN

MY STORY

Atlas Diy was a non-profit organization that was in Sunset Park. When I joined a program that Atlas Diy offered that is where my connection to my neighborhood started to grow. I was able to provide help for my neighborhood, giving information people needed, and giving hope during fearful times. Sunset Park influenced me for good.

HISTORY OF SUNSET PARK

Sunset Park lies between Bay Ridge and Gowanus, stretching from 15th street to 65th street from 9th Avenue to New Harbor. Sunset Park is a demographically diverse neighborhood of approximately 150,000 people. Sunset Park was named in 1965 for the 25 acre park built in the 1800's which overlooks the neighborhood.

FAMOUS PERSON

Jay Z has a very successful artist over the last years. Evolving the music industry. Jay-Z's real name is Shawn Corey Carter. Carter grew in a rough neighborhood called the Marcy Projects, surrounded by drugs, violence, and poverty. Carter turned to rap and used it as an escape from the bad environment that surrounded him. As of today Jay Z has become one of the most successful artists.