

III Micro Story Contest of the Modern Languages Department

The Modern Language Department announces its 3rd Micro Story Contest for BMCC students. Participants must conform to the following guidelines:

1. Any student enrolled at BMCC during the 2021-2022 academic year is eligible to participate.
2. Micro stories must not exceed 150 words.
3. The topic of the micro story is open.
4. Participants can submit a maximum of two unpublished, non-previously awarded micro stories.
5. Winners of the 2nd Contest are not eligible to participate.
6. There will be a different category for each of the languages taught in the Modern Languages Department: Spanish, French, Italian, Chinese, Arabic and American Sign Language. There will be a new category for Spanglish.
7. All pieces should be submitted online as an attachment to mldmicrofiction@gmail.com the subject line should include the participating category, i.e., Arabic, Chinese, French, Italian, Spanish, Spanglish or American Sign Language.
8. The body of the message must include the following author information: first and last name, student ID number, major, e-mail and phone number.
9. The deadline to submit the short stories is April 22nd 2022.
10. There will be a first and second prize for each category.
11. Awards will be presented on May 6th 2022 in a virtual ceremony. Awardees will read their pieces.