

Where I am from

I am from shell,
from sand and sea.

I am from the charming sunrise by the sea.

I am from the jasmine,
the white petals and light fragrance.

I am from play chess,
and drink tea,
from Chenghua,
and Juying and Wenbin.

I am from the “please learn to share with my younger brother”

and “take care of my brother”.

From sleeping in a stranger's van
and break the neighbor's eggs.

I am from temple.

Incense burns in the temple.

I'm from Fujian,
meat balls and green tea.

From the My dad lost his job from the factory,
and the my mom left home to work further afield.

I am from the photo album at the bottom of the
bookshelf,

Each one is full of stories.

Records my childhood.
